

The Twelve Walls

Your own reading — the working sheet

The companion to Where the Walls Came From. Print it. Mark it. Then do it again in six months — one reading is a snapshot, two is a direction.

How to score. For each wall, mark the most advanced thing that is actually true of you right now. Not what you intend. Not last year.

- Standing — intact.
- Cracked — drifting. The early sign is showing.
- Fallen — breached. The advanced sign is here.

#	Wall	Standing	Cracked	Fallen	Mark
1	Keep climbing	Still growing; can name the next pitch	"I've arrived"; growth slowed	Not climbing, and cannot see what is coming
2	Remember who helped you	Tells the stories; keeps some record	Thanks gone formal; success told in the first person	Cannot name what he owes, or to whom
3	One heart, not two	Can name the line and stands on it	Something else quietly sharing the seat	Forms kept, substance is the world's
4	No looking down on people	No contempt across any line	Status creeping back in	Actively despises a category of person
5	Say what is real	Plain speech, with himself included	Spin and softening normal	Cannot tell his own story straight
6	Let someone correct you	Someone may correct him, and does	Correction resented; the messenger questioned	The corrector removed — or the replacement driven off

#	Wall	Standing	Cracked	Fallen	Mark
7	Stay together	Tied to his people; loyal to the whole	Pulling toward one faction; withdrawing	Isolated, or working against his own
8	Keep your word	Keeps promises that cost	Promises turn conditional	Broken faith normal; a second life running
9	Serve, do not show off	Uses position to help	Advancement by appearance	Appetite governs, not character
10	Fix your weak spot	Knows the weak point; guard up on purpose	Maintenance deferred; guards let slip	The weak point breached — found by the enemy, not by him
11	Be strong and still be kind	Restrained; offers peace first	Force the first reflex; mercy read as weakness	Enjoys the harm
12	Pass it on	Transmitting on purpose, early, out loud	Assuming it will transfer	Nothing transferring, or only performance

Then read it, in this order

1 • The deepest fallen wall. The highest-numbered one marked Fallen. That is your stage.

No fallen walls? Then name the deepest cracked one. That is the stage forming — and you are at the cheapest possible place to catch it.

2 • The lowest wall still standing. The lowest-numbered one still intact. Protect that one. It is your line.

3 • Where the repair starts. The lowest wall that is not Standing. Begin there — but re-light Walls 1 and 2 first regardless.

4 • Anything odd. A wall standing at a lower number than a fallen one. The disease usually runs top down, so look at that again.

Deepest fallen wall

Lowest wall still standing

Repair starts at

Anything odd

Then the anchors

These are not walls. The question is not am I using it but is the road still there.

Anchor	The question	Standing / Damaged / Cut
The temple	Is there a fixed place and rhythm I could return to?
The covenant	Do I believe the door is open to me , personally?
The word	Is scripture actually in use, and is a living voice still being heeded?

And the one reading that matters most. If the word is damaged or cut, start there — because it is also the fuel of Wall 1 and the entry point for everything else. Re-light the daily feast and three problems close at once.

"Feast upon the words of Christ; for behold, the words of Christ will tell you all things what ye should do." (2 Nephi 32:3)

Joash had two anchors standing and lost everything, because the one he lost was the portable one.

The rule that makes the whole thing work

The disease runs downward from the highest fallen wall. The repair runs upward from the lowest.

You do not rebuild the ramparts for a man who has stopped climbing and forgotten the Source. Walls 1 and 2 get re-lit first. Every time.
